Submission Requirements

As part of the entry process, your book cover is required. When you enter online, you can upload the cover image easily as part of your entry. If you are entering manually instead, you will be required to email your cover image as a png, gif, bmp, or jpg to info@indiebookawards.com when entering. Please ensure the subject line clearly states Manual Entry – then your book title and author.

Two copies of the book must be sent for the first category entered and one additional copy of the book for each additional category entered. For example, if you enter three categories, you must send four copies of the book in total (two for the first category, one for the second category and one for the third category). Payment and books must be received by no later than February 12, 2021. Books must be mailed to:

Next Generation Indie Book Awards
7916 NE 173rd Ave.
Vancouver, WA 98682
USA

If you are entering the Series Category, the complete series title is required, or the series title and Volumes or Book numbers. You must then send in the correct number of sets of the complete series to the address above.

If you are submitting your book electronically or entering an e-book category, you must complete the entry process online at <http://indiebookawards.com/enter/entryform>. Electronic submissions are not accepted for offline entries.

When mailing in copies of your books, please be sure to include the correct postage on the package. Incorrect postage could result in your books being returned to you, resulting in delayed processing and possibly missing the entry date. Please avoid sending book shipments requesting a signature. Requesting signatures for proof of delivery can cause a delay in receiving and processing your books.

Thank you for your entry, and good luck!
